PREFACE

The book of Revelation begins with the promise that all who study this book and keep the words written in it will be blessed. It concludes with the admonishment not to take away or to add to the inspired message God has given us. This beautiful Revelation of Jesus Christ is given to John, who is commanded to reveal the Word to all. God wants us to know what this book says and the gravity of the message that it contains.

The message of the book of Revelation is that while there will be great tribulation for those who follow God; however, in the end, God wins! He is and will be victorious over all forms of evil, and if we are faithful and true to Him, we too will be victorious with Him!

Students learn so much more when they expect to be evaluated. This study guide can be used in a class session orally reviewing the material. It can also facilitate studies as students read through the text and allow the Study Guide to aid their comprehension of events.

Every effort has been made to remain faithful to the text. Questions are written to help the student read the exact words of the scripture without interpretive speculation. "Faith comes from hearing the message" (Romans 10:17) – not from man's "what do you think" or "how do you feel" about that message. Sometimes the student will be surprised when examining the details; the story is not exactly what they have seen in a Bible video or simplified Bible class message.

Questions are based on the ESV® Bible (The Holy Bible, English Standard Version®). All questions are taken from the ESV® Text Edition: 2016, copyright © 2001 by Crossway, a publishing ministry of Good News Publishers. ESV text notes, or footnotes, can be considered as part of the text. To facilitate Texas Bible Bowl preparation, chapter questions are in multiple-choice format. This year's study guide also includes a sampling of verse find questions to facilitate test preparation.
